Eclipse Tomorrow! Full Eclipse on Monday @ 3:15

Friends, please be aware! Northeast Ohio is going to be very busy with heavy traffic all day tomorrow, as the eclipse path travels over our area! The full eclipse will be at 3:15, but it will start with a partial eclipse at 1:59. Please be careful if you're on the road during the afternoon, as it will be very dark during the eclipse, and many accidents occur during the full eclipse.

To observe the eclipse, please make sure you have certified glasses that are ISO 12312-2 compliant. You should be able to find that information on the disposable glasses or their packaging, and you shouldn't be able to see light coming through it indoors! Stay safe and enjoy this event!
